Control the Numbers that Control your Life

Martin Romain, Founder and Dental Practice Consultant, Prosolve

- Monitors are the symbols by which you measure the various activities of your business, they represent an early warning system
- In your business you want “no surprises” – what gets measured gets done, if what is being done cannot be measured, it is not contributing
- Fixing current problems or spotting developing ones becomes extremely difficult unless you know where to look and what to look for

So What's Your Practice Worth? The truth on dental practice valuations in these uncertain economic times

Bill Henderson, President, Tier Three Brokerage Ltd.

- Key factors affecting practice values today
- Six things you can do to increase the value of your practice
- The myth of the “dentist baby boom”

Keeping the most in your pocket

Lloyd Wright, Health Care Partner, BDO Canada LLP

- General discussion about different structures for a sale
- Professional Corporation Update
- Other general estate and tax issues
